

Year One

What makes an inspirational person?

How does the past shape our future?
(Shackleton, Amelia Earhart, Florence Nightingale, Mary Seacole) Study of the lives of significant individuals
Social: diversity, health and hygiene
Economic: occupations
Military: conflict Democracy: leadership

Year Two

Great Fire of London:

How does the past shape our future? A study of events beyond living memory that are significant nationally.
Social: homes, architecture, health and hygiene
Economic: occupations
Democracy: leadership, rulers

Grace Darling & Victorian Holidays

Can one person make a difference?
How does the past shape our future?
Study the lives of significant individuals
Social: diversity, rich and poor, children, leisure and entertainment, Economic: occupations
Democracy: monarchy

Year Three

In addition, all year groups will continue to learn about events, people and changes throughout history as part of the wider curriculum.

The Roman Empire

How did the Romans make a difference?
Military: invasion, conflict
Social: architecture, homes, Democracy: empire, rulers, leadership

Stone Age

Could I have survived the Stone Age?
Social: architecture, homes and settlement, communication
Economic: farming
Military: Conflict

Year Four

Anglo-Saxons and Vikings

How do we tell truth from tale?
Social: homes, architecture
Economic: trade, farming
Military: invasion, conflict
Spiritual: beliefs and rituals

Ancient Greeks

Are we all equal?
Economic: trade, occupations
Military: invasion
Democracy: empire
Social: leisure and entertainment, architecture, homes, diversity
Spiritual: Gods, beliefs and rituals, buildings

Eyam – The plague

Do our choices really matter? Does adversity make you stronger?
A local history Study and a study beyond 1066
Spiritual: beliefs,
Social: health and hygiene, communication
Democracy: leadership
Economic: resources

Mayans

How do beliefs influence actions?
Social: architecture, homes, communication
Economic: trade
Democracy: rulers
Spiritual: beliefs and rituals, gods

Year Five

The Battle of Britain

Does adversity make you stronger?
Why was this significant turning point in British history?
Economic: trade, occupations
Military: conflict
Democracy: empire, leadership, rulers
Social: children, communication, diversity

Year Six

